

Pogacha's PUB 85

SPIRITS • FIRED PROVISIONS • SPORTS

So what's a Pogacha you ask??

The name "Pogacha" is a Croatian term referring to a "soft, chewy flatbread" (pogaca) native to Croatia.

Our Pogacha's are freshly made daily, formed by hand, and baked in our custom built Italian Stone oven to form our Pizzas as well as formed into our Sandwich Bread and Rolls.

We feature a Northwest menu with the added flair of the Adriatic, fresh herbs started from seedlings in the family garden in Croatia, all dressings and sauces made from scratch and a terrific selection of Spirits and Draughts

On behalf of all of our Pogacha Family we look forward to not only serving you today but welcoming you to Pogacha's PUB85

POGACHA PIZZA

Pogacha means flatbread, or in our case "pizza" We make ours fresh daily, forming each by hand into individual pizzas, covering them with a special blend of cheeses and only the freshest most delectable toppings. They are so good you will not even miss the red sauce...however, for the traditionalist, you may add red sauce to any of our Pogachas for a minimal charge.
